Camara de Lobos & Cape Girão

Known as the ‘floating garden’ or ‘garden isle’ and blessed with both unforgettably dramatic scenery and a moderate sub-tropical climate, Madeira is a wonderful destination to visit at almost any time of year. This holiday is based at an elegant hotel located right at the heart of the endearingly Madeiran historic coastal community of Santa Cruz, only a short stroll from its main square. Surrounding the main square are a beautiful 16th-century church, a 16th-century town hall, a small but picturesque park featuring local subtropical plants, and a couple of attractive cafés with seating in the square itself. Beyond the square lie cobbled streets, a second pedestrianised square, a variety of typical local shops, a number of small bars and restaurants, a fish market, and an alluring sea front promenade.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION PROGRAMME

The Scenic East – Climb to the summit of the island's second tallest mountain, Pico do Arieiro, to enjoy magnificent views before heading into the ancient Laurisilva forests surrounding the trout farms of Ribeiro Frio. Next stop in the verdant agricultural village of Santana to view its pretty selection of traditional Madeiran cottages before stopping at the scenic unspoilt peninsula of Ponte São Lourenço and the wicker-working community of Camacha.

The Wild West – This itinerary takes in much of the island's wildest, most dramatic scenery, including visits to the tallest sea cliffs in Europe at Cape Girão, the moor-like mountain marshlands of Paúl da Serra, and the weather beaten cliffs and bays of the island's North West. There are also stops at the coastal communities of Camara de Lobos, Porto Moniz, and Ribeira Brava.

Levada Walking Programme – Select from a choice of guided levada walks in scenically contrasting areas of the island. There are options for most levels of fitness and detailed advice will be offered to enable you to select appropriate itineraries.
